Procedures for accessing your QuickBooks Online (QBO):

This Page of instructions is a sample invitation e-mail that chapter presidents and treasurers receive from HQ through QuickBooks Online (QBO). The following pages help you with your “Login” and Chapter contact information.

Greetings,

Congratulations, Fred Nasri has invited you to join QuickBooks Online Plus as a new user of Region 10.

QuickBooks Online Plus can help you easily manage your business finances online. Working online also provides the ability for several members of a company to access the company's financial books.

Once you accept this invitation, you'll be able to access QuickBooks Online Plus immediately.

Ready to accept this invitation?

To accept this invitation, click here.

If you don't already have a login account (user name and password) with us, you'll be asked to create one. You may already have a login account if you've used Intuit Business Services before (such as QuickBooks Online or Intuit Online Payroll).

How to log in

Once you accept this invitation, you can access Region 10 by logging in at:
<https://accounting.quickbooks.com>
